I hereby request permission to write a Master's thesis in accordance with Section 26 ASPO (General Academic and Examination Regulations) dated 1 July 2015 in conjunction with the applicable subject-specific provisions (FSB)

in the following degree programme:

I hereby confirm that I am enrolled as a student at Julius-Maximilians-Universität Würzburg and that I am not currently on leave of absence. I have already earned the number of ECTS credits needed to be able to register for my Master's thesis.

The Examination Office for Management and Economics will assess whether you meet the requirements for being granted permission to write a Master's thesis.

The latest submission date for your thesis is six months after the date of assignment of the thesis topic (Section 26 (5) ASPO in conjunction with the applicable subject-specific provisions (FSB)).

According to Section 26 (10) ASPO 2015, you will have to submit to the Examination Office two electronic copies of your Master's thesis that are saved on a standard storage device in a standard file format. When your thesis supervisor agrees your topic with you, he or she may also require that you submit three paper copies of your thesis in addition to the electronic copies.

Date, signature (requesting student)

To be completed by the thesis supervisor:
